Adding a Members-Only Section

This article relates to Site 1.0

The MEMBERS SECTION feature turns on a login page that once a member logs into successfully, allows them to access any content on the website that is set to PUBLIC DISPLAY = NO. This could include news stories, image galleries and user defined data.

Here is an example of a club that has utilised the members section:

Members Only Login

If you have difficulty logging in, you may need to wait until your registration has been processed by Club Administration. If you have just registered, please give us a little more time to process your registration. Contact Us if you have any queries.

Username:

Password:

Login

Please Note: The member will need to login with their Membership Username and Password to access this area

Related Articles

[template("related")]